

One-year Postdoctoral Fellowship 2022-2023

Call for Applications

The newly established Interdisciplinary Unit for Polish Studies at the Haifa University (HIUPS) seeks applications for postdoctoral fellowships for the academic year 2022-2023. The purpose of this fellowship is to promote innovative and multidisciplinary research in or related to Polish studies. We are looking for outstanding and motivated candidates who have recently received their PhD and their next project is related to Polish cultural/geographical area. We encourage applications from candidates working in humanities, arts, and social science.

Applicants must hold a PhD by the beginning of the fellowship, and no longer than 5 years. Hebrew fluency is a benefit, though not a requirement. The successful candidate will work with an advisor from HIUPS, take an active part in all activities of the unit, and present their work to graduate students enrolled in Polish studies. The stipend will be approximately 75,000 ILS in monthly payments.

Please submit the following materials in one Pdf file:

- CV including list of publications,
- Project description and research plan (up to 3 pages + bibliography up to 1 page)
- Dissertation abstract (up to 2 pages)
- Writing sample (up to 8,000 words)

Three letters of recommendation from scholars in the field, including a letter from PhD supervisor, should be emailed directly by referees to: hiups@univ.haifa.ac.il.

Applications should be emailed to HIUPS at hiups@univ.haifa.ac.il by May 15th, 2022. Answers will be sent during June 2022.

The University of Haifa and HIUPS are committed to cultural, racial and gender equity. Applicants of all personal backgrounds are welcome to apply.

